

Business Digest

Sunday, September 14, 2008

By:

Staff Reports

D1 Sports appoints Bandy

D1 Sports has announced its promotion of former UTC football player Nate Bandy to facility coordinator and the addition of Cortney Braswell as recruiting coordinator.

Mr. Bandy succeeds Cos Dematteo, who has joined the coaching staff of a local school, a news release said.

Mr. Bandy will oversee the day-to-day operations of the facility.

D1 has facilities in Nashville, Knoxville, Memphis, Greenville, S.C., Huntsville and Little Rock, Ark., as well as Chattanooga.

Comcast names Shipley to post

Comcast has announced its naming of Laurie J. Shipley to serve as manager of government affairs for its systems serving Chattanooga.

She has seven years of experience in public relations, including service with the Chattanooga Theatre Centre, Allied Arts of Greater Chattanooga and Girls Inc.

She is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and served as a U.S. Naval oceanographic officer.

Her husband, Tom, serves as director of quality assurance for Walden Security in Chattanooga. Their daughter, Keli, is a junior at Girls Preparatory School.

Comcast is a telecommunications company that provides Internet and cable television services.

Bank gets OK for trust powers

CapitalMark has received approval from federal and state regulatory agencies to exercise trust powers for its wealth and trust management division, R. Craig Holley, chairman, president and CEO of the bank, has announced.